Hawboldt Environmental Studies Bursary

Got a passion for the environment AND something to say about it? The Hawboldt Environmental Studies Bursary is your chance to turn your ideas into impact—and win $500 while you're at it! Open to 2026 high school grads in the Annapolis River watershed heading into environmental-focused studies

Get creative—submit a video, essay, song, or poem. Answer either of these questions: What is a significant ecological issue in the Annapolis River watershed, and how would you address it? OR How can citizens be good environmental stewards?

Deadline: May 29, 2026. Submit applications to: susanlane@annapolisriver.ca

Dragon Boat Races

The popular annual River Festival will be held at Jubilee Park in Bridgetown Saturday, July 11. Registration for the 2026 Dragon Boat Races is now open!

An update on North Hills Museum

Over the past several weeks, the Annapolis Heritage Society Board of Directors and staff have been in contact with the Nova Scotia Museum to discuss next steps for North Hills Museum. As part of these discussions, we have been given the opportunity to continue operating North Hills as a community museum funded through the Community Museum Assistant Program (CMAP). We have decided to accept this offer for the 2026 season!

While we are absolutely thrilled that North Hills will be able to open this summer, transitioning to a CMAP-funded model does not necessarily represent a sustainable long-term solution. As the provincial government pursues complete community ownership of North Hills over the next several years, we will continue to assess our options and develop a realistic path forward, one step at a time.

After a very long off-season, we are looking forward to opening our doors and welcoming you back to the O'Dell House, Sinclair Inn, and North Hills Museums very soon. More information about open hours and special events will be shared in the coming days.

Riverside Cemetery Bridgetown is pleased to announce they have been granted charity status by Revenue Canada. We have been waiting a long time for this to happen. The exciting part is that we can now issue tax-deductible receipts to those who wish to make donations of $50 and over. Funds raised from donations and the sale of lots goes fully to the care and upkeep of our beautiful cemetery. Cheques can be made payable to Riverside Cemetery Bridgetown and mailed to PO Box 321, Bridgetown, NS, B0S 1C0 or for cash donations you can contact 902-665-2107. Thank you for your ongoing support, it is greatly appreciated.

WE CAN DIG IT!
902.665.5005

Against the violent backdrop of the French and Indian (Seven Years) War, two German siblings come to learn about and understand the Mi'kmaq. Christian, now named Bear Cub, lives with the ancient People and develops a deep bond with his chosen brother, Eagle Feather, while his new family's way of life is increasingly threatened. On the outskirts of Lunenburg, Hanna, his younger sister, befriends a Mi'kmaq Elder and questions her papa's ownership of the land they are settling.

Christian immerses himself in the Mi'kmaq language and the ways of the land, prepared to defend the People alongside Eagle Feather. Christian's father and older sister, Elisabeth, refuse to accept his new way of life, nor will they recognize the humanity of their perceived enemy.

Christian is caught between two diverse families and cultures—the one to which he was born and to whom he feels obligated, and the one he has grown to love and respect. Settlers and Mi'kmaq alike struggle on land that is the ancestral home to one and promised to the other. Their struggle with one another resonates to this day.

“Tethered Spirits is a deeply moving novel. As someone who values stories of reconciliation and belonging, I found Bear Cub's inner struggle between two identities—colonial and Indigenous—both heartbreaking and profoundly resonant. The novel doesn't shy away from the brutal realities of displacement, violence, and cultural loss, but it also celebrates kinship, resilience, and the enduring wisdom of the land and its First Peoples. Tethered Spirits is not just an historical account—it's a spiritual journey that lingers long after the final page.”

—Honourable Leah Martin, member of Millbrook First Nation, Nova Scotia Minister of Innu Affairs

As a direct descendant of one of the first 1753 settlers of Lunenburg, Nova Scotia, Corinne Hoebbers' passion for history moved her to write and self-publish her first novel, Call of a Distant Shore, in 2008. Soon after, she began a comprehensive journey that led her to this standalone sequel, Tethered Spirits, a journey that involved close and constant consultation with members of the Mi'kmaq community.

Thur. May 21, 10am-2:00pm Barter Based Session: Stone Soup for All, an Annapolis Valley Folk School event at 2659 Clarence Rd. We are gathering to make soup for ourselves and others! This session will teach you how to make large quantities of soup. We will make the soups together and try them out at lunch. Then after a soup luncheon we will package the extras for the pantry. It will be a hands-on session so once everyone is signed up an email will be sent out with the items you will need to bring to make the cooking easier.

If this is your first time attending a barter-based skills-trade class, note that attendees are encouraged to bring an item(s) to offer in exchange for the knowledge shared in addition to any supplies required for the class. Our facilitator's preferred items are pantry items, canned meats, veggies, meals, rice, pasta, crackers, soups, breakfast foods, milk, cheese, yogurts. And dish soap, shampoos, toothpaste, toilet paper. Also as usual, if you are not feeling well, please stay home and keep everyone well. If you have any difficulty registering, you can send us an email at avfolkschool@gmail.com or message us on Facebook.

Fri. May 8, 7:30pm The Good Brothers (live performance) 50th Anniversary Tour. The Good Brothers original line-up of Bruce, Brian and Larry Good continue to deliver a world-class show that features their trademark sibling harmonies. This legendary group are the recipients of eight Juno awards for Best Country Group and headlined gigs at Massey Hall, Roy Thompson Hall, The National Art Centre and performed countless shows at L.A.'s Universal Amphitheatre with (their mentor) Gordon Lightfoot. The Good Brothers are inductees into the Canadian Country Music Hall of Fame and the North American Country Music Hall of Fame, and received two nominations for Country Group and Roots Artist of the year at the Canadian Country Music Awards. They have gained a worldwide audience over the course of their accomplished career. Their acclaimed show encompasses country, bluegrass, folk and the occasional selection from their rock and roll songbook. Tickets: Adults $40, Youth $15.

Sun. May 17, 6:00pm Little Lorraine (film, 14A) Little Lorraine, a North Atlantic seaside town with a population of 60, becomes embroiled in an international cocaine smuggling operation under the noses of multiple governments, distributed in coffins through a network of funeral homes.

Adam Baldwin's folk song Lighthouse in Little Lorraine inspired Nova Scotia's Hines, a Grammy-nominated music video director, to create his feature directorial debut. Hines initially developed a music video for the song, which served as a proof of concept for the full-length film. Drawing from a wealth of real-life experiences, Little Lorraine is a compelling narrative that is both insightful and moving, brought to life by a talented cast. Set amid the stunning landscape of Little Lorraine in Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, the film opens in the wake of a devastating 1986 mining explosion that claimed the lives of 10 men. Amidst the mine's closure, Jimmy (Stephen Amell) is left jobless with a young family to support. His estranged and unreliable great uncle Huey (Stephen McHattie) reappears, offering Jimmy a position on his lobster fishing boat - an offer he is in no position to decline. Starring Stephen Amell, Stephen McHattie, and Auden Thornton. Tickets: Adults $11.95, Youth $7.95.
