Council Approves Second and Final Reading to Adopt County-Wide Plan

During a Special Council meeting held on January 18th, second and final reading to adopt the County-Wide Municipal Planning Strategy (MPS) and Land Use Bylaw (LUB) was approved.

Changes to Provincial legislation in 2018 required municipalities to review and update the MPS and LUB to ensure minimum and mandatory planning requirements were being met.

In 2022, the County engaged Stantec Ltd. to conduct a review, public consultation, and produce a MPS and LUB for the municipality. Over the next two years, approximately 30 public meetings were held to collect information from the public.

“Council is very appreciative of residents who shared their thoughts, views, and concerns around the development of this County-Wide Plan,” said Warden Alex Morrison. “Our staff worked diligently with Stantec to create a Plan that reflected what was heard during the public consultations.”

A public hearing was held on January 18th, where the public had an opportunity to speak to the draft plan. Immediately following, a Special Council meeting was held where Councillors voted to move forward with it.

The Plan will now be forwarded to the NS Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing for review and approval. Upon ministerial approval, an advertisement will be placed in the local newspaper, with the date of the advertisement being the effective date of the document.

The existing secondary planning areas of Cornwallis Park, Upper Clements, Bridgetown, and East End Area are not affected by the County-Wide Plan.

“This was a challenging, yet enjoyable, journey,” noted Warden Morrison. “It provided opportunity to learn more about our County and our residents. Everyone worked hard to make it to this point in the process.”

A copy of the County-Wide Municipal Planning Strategy and Land Use Bylaw can be viewed at www.annapoliscounty.ca next week.

comfortable with giving to the community – there are no limitations or expectations – our definition of fairness is that each person will share within their means and that is always resulted in amazing generosity and abundance.

c) All items brought to be shared will go on to a common table to get blended in with everything else others are sharing. After spending time getting to know each other, we will go up to take items from the table, one item at a time, until each person decides they have taken enough to be “fair” to the community.

Some popular trade able items (to get your creative juices flowing): preserves, pickles and jam, kombucha and shrubs, soaps and beauty care items, plants, baked goods, jewellery, dog toys and treats, paintings and drawings, vouchers for service trades like haircuts, massages, and prepared meals. If you have any questions at all feel free to post in this event on Facebook or email to avfolkschool@gmail.com

It is also greatly appreciated if you can bring a few pantry items to the swap. Our pantry is increasingly active with many people using it. A few suggestions are crackers, beans, canned pasta, meats, and veggies, fruit cups, macaroni and cheese, pastas and sauces. We were given a fridge so milk, cream, margarine, yogurt, and cheeses can all be dropped off as well. Tickets at <https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/january-makers-swap-tickets-790056900457?aff=oddtdeator>

Sat. Feb. 3, 7:30pm Old Man

Luedecke (live performance) Old Man Luedecke is a 2x JUNO and multi East Coast Music Award-winner, and Polaris Music Prize nominee from Chester, Nova Scotia. Since 2004 he has travelled the world playing festivals, theatres and clubs. He delights his audiences with his heart-felt command of the stage. Plus, his inspired banjo playing and wry storytelling cut to the heart of normal/extraordinary experience itself.

Born and raised in Toronto, Luedecke followed Thoreauvian and romantic notions to Canada's Yukon where he fell in love and started composing folk songs with a banjo. Since 2005, he has lived rurally on the south shore of Nova Scotia in Canada's music-rich Maritime provinces. He has had major appearances at Canadian, Australian and UK festivals and has performed with the likes of Feist, Bahamas, Tim O'Brien, and Rose Cousins. He has built a name and a following that has been uncompromisingly unique and is now firmly established in the top echelon of Canadian folk artists. As the Vancouver Folk Festival says, "He is a musical singularity to be savoured and shared."

Opened by local folk duo Sam Boer and Anita Cazzola. Anita Cazzola and Sam Boer have been writing, recording, and touring folk music for over 10 years. Both are members of The Lifers, a folk-rock band led by Anita and her sister Liv that has released two acclaimed albums and toured Canada, the US, and Europe. Anita often joins Sam as part of his project Samson Wrote, which has garnered Folk Music Ontario and Canadian Folk Music Awards nominations. When they're not collaborating musically or swimming at Mickey Hill together, Anita runs Mani D'oro—a textile mending and repair studio in Annapolis Royal—and Sam writes unconventional musicals through the Uncommon Folk Collective. Tickets: Adults $40; Youth $5.

WEASY'S HAIR SALON

4730 Hwy #1 Granville Ferry

Follow & send messages on Facebook

902-532-2273

This week is about coloring your own hair at home and an announcement. Some hairdressers might not like that I give this information but to keep the integrity of your hair in mind, I feel I need to share some info. When putting color on your roots (near the scalp) it may not turn out to be the same shade as the hair strand (called the shaft, that's the part of the hair from the roots out to the ends). It could be a number of things, one thing to keep in mind is that the roots are only 1 color, that's the new color you are putting on them, the rest of the hair shaft can tend to be darker by a little but most often it's a lot. That, my friend, is from the color being spread up past the roots onto the shaft and the hair gets over processed and over processed each time it happens, and it builds up on the hair strand. That hair has already been chemically processed so it is porous and will suck up the color for the whole time you have it on. Combing the new color up the hair shaft to the ends the last few minutes will help keep the hair from getting too dark. If you decide to treat yourself, as you deserve, tell the hairdresser that there is box color on your hair so that they know during the beginning of your consultation, instead of it taking perhaps 5 hours later of why the hair will not lighten or why it didn't turn out the way it was planned. Don't forget to towel dry that dripping wet hair before your conditioner, cool down the water on the hair when you are all done.

We have an announcement to make.

It happened kind of fast, Sarah Rhoddy, A 6-year master hairdresser has joined our team. She loves doing Blondes & men's haircutting and uses Redken color-line. She also works at Mountain Lea doing hair. She will be working Fridays & Saturdays, starting this coming Friday Jan 26.
