Call For Proposals

Paradise Heritage Centre's Spring Conference May 22, 23. Deadline for submission February 6.

"Stories Are All We Have: The Shape of Our Footprints" with Amanda Peters, author of The Berry Pickers, as keynote speaker.

Stories have the power to build connection and understanding, to strengthen community. Stories woven through our lives and through history may transcend time and embrace generations. This is as true in the history of our valley as it is anywhere.

Are you the person or group that would like to join Amanda and the rest of us to tell a story of our area that embraces generations and can help us to connect and understand? You would be presenting that story on Saturday, May 23. You can choose the form- a storytelling circle, a digital presentation... whatever works best for you.

Apply to barbarabishop84@gmail.com.

African Heritage Month

February 2026. Sharing the History and Culture of African Nova Scotians.

This year's African Heritage Month provincial theme is "Strength in Unity: Moving Forward with Purpose, Prosperity, Power, and Progress." The theme speaks to the power that comes when African Nova Scotians and people of African descent stand together with a shared sense of direction. It recognizes unity as an active force for change that strengthens communities, advances justice, and creates new opportunities.

At the heart of this strength are our elders, whose wisdom, stories and leadership continue to guide us. As knowledge keepers and culture bearers, they remind us of where we have come from and what it has taken to get here. In honouring our elders, we celebrate more than 400 years of African presence in Nova Scotia and the enduring legacy of the province's 52 historic African Nova Scotian communities, while renewing our commitment to move forward together with purpose, prosperity, power and progress.

The 2026 theme also reflects the continued journey beyond the United Nations International Decade for People of African Descent, carrying forward the principles of recognition, justice, and development. Strength in Unity calls upon us to harness our collective wisdom, resilience, and creativity to build prosperity in all its forms, cultural, social economic and spiritual.

African Heritage Month provides an opportunity for all Nova Scotians to learn, reflect, and celebrate the history, culture, achievements and contributions of people of African descent past and present.

Dimensional Printmaking with Basma Kavanagh

At ARTSPLACE Gallery, 396 St. George Street, Annapolis Royal.

ARTSPLACE Gallery is pleased to welcome our next Member in Residence, Basma Kavanagh, who will spend four weeks developing a new body of large stitched, folded, and collaged works in paper. Drawing on her extensive background in printmaking, Kavanagh will experiment with relief prints as building blocks for sculptural installations created within the studio space and the Library Gallery.

During the residency, Kavanagh will begin a new series and create new hand-printed works using linocut, stencils, and brayers, as well as printed elements produced at the nearby Elephant Grass Printmakers' studio.

Select works in progress will be presented in the Library Gallery from February 7 to 14, where visitors can observe pieces that may continue to evolve throughout the display period," said Sophie Paskins, Gallery Director.

Kavanagh is a Lebanese Canadian multidisciplinary artist whose practice includes writing, printmaking, textiles, performance, and artist books. She has exhibited and performed across Canada and in the United States and has held residencies at Penland School of Craft, the Banff Centre and the Minnesota Center for Book Arts. She recently completed an MFA in Creative Nonfiction at the University of King's College, Halifax.

Member-in-Residence, Basma Kavanagh. Residency January 17 to February 14. Exhibition Library Gallery February 7-14. Check the website for open studio times. Closing reception, Sat. February 14, 2026, 12-2 p.m. Light refreshments served, all welcome.

7.4 RFD 003-2026 Grants to Organizations Policy

CAO Crocker gave a brief overview of the Grants to Organizations Policy.

260119.06 It was moved and seconded that Council approve the replacement of the existing Grant Administration Policy with the Grants to Organizations Policy as presented. Motion defeated.

There was a lengthy discussion around the Grants to Organization Policy. Council discussed policy adjustments for one-time and community grants. CAO Crocker noted deadlines existed on forms rather than in the policy and reporting back on amounts will be part of the application. Councillor Archibald clarified the policy applies to capital campaigns or projects, not specific organizations. Councillor Smith emphasized that council should retain authority over all grants, including smaller amounts. Deputy Mayor Marshall expressed that the concern is $1-$5,000 grants.

ACTION: CAO Crocker to revise the policy, adding a clause in section 4 that all one time requests require council approval.

260119.07 It was moved and seconded that Council approve the replacement of the existing Grants Administration Policy with the Grants to Organizations Policy as amended to include that all one-time grants, and community grants be approved by Council. Motion carried.

- o CAO Crocker confirmed that the Tree Lighting can remain on November 27th, and another date in December will be set for the Parade.
- CAO Crocker proposed Saturday, July 18 as a Family Fun Day and noted plans for the 2027 Heart of the Valley (HOTV) Festival.

“A fire broke out backstage in a theatre. The clown came out to warn the public; they thought it was a joke and applauded. He repeated it; the acclaim was even greater. I think that's just how the world will come to an end: to general applause from wits who believe it's a joke.”

Funding for 2SLGBTQIA+ Community Groups

A new funding program is helping the Province deliver on its commitment to the 2SLGBTQIA+ community. The 2SLGBTQIA+ Community Impact Grant program will provide flexible funding to help strengthen the capacity, stability and long-term impact of community-based organizations across the province that serve 2SLGBTQIA+ Nova Scotians.

The program stems from the Province's 2SLGBTQIA+ Action Plan, released January 8.

"This investment reflects our commitment to moving from planning to action," said Attorney General and Justice Minister Scott Armstrong, Minister responsible for the Office of Equity and Anti-Racism. "By supporting the organizations that serve and advocate for 2SLGBTQIA+ communities, we are helping to build a province where everyone feels safe, respected and able to fully belong."

Community-based organizations can apply for a grant of up to $25,000 per project, with $150,000 available in total. The grants will support core and administrative costs, helping recipients do their work, grow sustainably and better serve underrepresented and underserved communities, including those in rural areas.

To be eligible, organizations must:

- be a registered not-for-profit or charity based in Nova Scotia
- have a primary mandate or sustained focus on serving 2SLGBTQIA+ communities
- feature 2SLGBTQIA+ leadership at the board or staff level
- show how funding will strengthen organizational capacity and community impact
- demonstrate collaboration or intersectional approaches to equity and inclusion.

Applications will be reviewed by the Office of Equity and Anti-Racism with support from a cross-government committee.
