A Lasting Legacy at Delaps Cove Wilderness Trail

On October 17, 2026, the Municipality of the County of Annapolis hosted a special gathering to recognize Anne Littlewood's generous donation of 13 acres of land in the Delaps Cove Wilderness Trail region.

This meaningful contribution connects existing Municipal lands from the trailhead parking lot to Bohaker Cove, supporting the ongoing care and conservation of a coastal landscape rich in natural beauty, biodiversity, and cultural history.

The celebration began with a special announcement from Town Crier Christine Connolloy, followed by remarks from Warden Diane LeBlanc:

"Anne decision to donate this land is a wonderful example of what can happen when someone recognizes the value of a place and wants to make sure that value is protected for the future. Today, we have the opportunity to recognize that generosity. This isn't simply 13 acres on a map. This acquisition creates something particularly important for the Delaps Cove Wilderness Trail. It gives us a much stronger ability to protect and care for this incredible coastal landscape."

Nick Hill of the Southwest Nova Biosphere Region Association, which is working in partnership with the Municipality, also shared words of congratulations.

Anne Littlewood spoke about her family's connection to the land, its history, and her hope that future generations will continue to enjoy and learn from this special place. "I am dedicating this land donation to the memory of my parents Phyllis and Boyd Littlewood, as a lasting legacy, so that future generations can visit and enjoy nature and the incredible diversity that this area supports."

A monument was unveiled in recognition of the donation, bearing the following inscription:

Littlewood Way "This forested piece of land along the Bay of Fundy was donated to preserve and protect the Delaps Cove Wilderness Trail. Donated by Anne Littlewood in loving memory of her parents, Boyd and Phyllis Littlewood. 2026"

Warden Diane LeBlanc presented Anne with a special certificate of thanks. Councillors Lynn Longmire, Jonathan Welsh, and Ted Agombar joined Municipal staff and community members for the celebration.

The afternoon concluded with a hike to the Bay of Fundy shoreline to view the donated lands, a colourful autumn walk along Bohaker Trail, and refreshments at the trailhead.

Thank you, Anne Littlewood, for this meaningful gift and for helping preserve a treasured part of Annapolis County's natural and cultural landscape for future generations.

I look at some of the great novelists, and I think the reason they are great is that they're telling the truth. The fact is they're using made-up names, made-up people, made-up places, and made-up times, but they're telling the truth about the human being – what we are capable of, what makes us lose, laugh, weep, fall down, and gnash our teeth and wring our hands and kill each other and love each other.

Mon. Nov. 9, 2:00om Remembrance Week Event at the Paradise Heritage Centre, 10307 Hwy 1. Tea and cake. Displays. We invite you to join us for a display of the memorial plaques, photos, honour rolls, and artifacts that help us to always remember those who chose danger and sacrifice for their country during World War I and World War II. Imagine a community of about four hundred and then imagine literally dozens of young men gone from that community, far from home, caught up in terrible battles. Young women went to the front to be nurses. Every people group in the country stepped up. Paradise reflected that all-out effort. Those at home kept homes, farms, and workplaces going.

The war was won. Paradise was just one of Canada’s rural communities who celebrated each victory, mourned the dead, hoped “never again”. Some came home to make a place for a “war bride”, a special group of Canadians. Everything changed for everyone. Each year we remember the fallen. And we think of those who did come home but did not speak much about it. We are mindful that other conflicts and other wars since mean other veterans. Remembrance Day matters.

We also invite you to bring along any letters or memorabilia you have of those in your family who went through those times. We would love to see and hear them.

Thur. Nov. 12, 1:00pm St. George and St. Andrew United Church—the big brick church by the traffic lights in Annapolis Royal--will host a free education session to learn about:

- Dementia signs and symptoms
- Brain health and reducing your risk
- Tips on how to communicate with someone who has dementia
- Supports available.

The program will be presented by Claire Jimmison, Regional Coordinator of Education and Outreach for the Alzheimer Society. Everyone is welcome. Preregistration is not required but for more information please phone Janet at (902) 532-7284.

Thur. Nov. 12, 6:30-8:00pm Whale Paint Night. Join Artist Jenna as she gently guides participants step-by-step to create a colourful, whale tail scene. No experience necessary. All supplies included. Cost is $35 per person. Register by emailing info@7Arts.ca. 7Arts Centre, 619 Central Ave, Greenwood.

Coming to King's Theatre

902-532-7704 209 St. George Street, Annapolis
Royal www.kingstheatre.ca

Fri. Oct. 30, 7:00pm Heart of the Beast (film, PG) After a harrowing plane crash, Special Forces veteran James Belmont (Brad Pitt) and his combat dog, Odin, find themselves stranded deep in the Alaskan wilderness. Together, they are forced into a brutal fight for survival against the elements. From acclaimed filmmaker David Ayer, Heart of the Beast is an intense adventure thriller that explores the unbreakable bond between a man and his best friend as they face their greatest battle yet. Tickets: Adult $11.95, Youth $7.95 (under 18).

Sat. Oct. 31, 8:00pm The Rocky Horror Show Live (live performance) After a sold out run in Wolfville in 2025, this high energy, vaudeville-style, gender-bending production comes to the King's Theatre stage on Halloween night, featuring a dozen actors and a live band. Tickets: Adults $45, Subsidized $25, Youth (14-17) $20.

Sun. Nov. 1, 2:00pm Così Fan Tutte, a Met Opera Stage to Screen presentation Overflowing with gorgeous melody and hilarious hijinks, Mozart's satirical comedy of fickle young love is one of the composer's most sublime creations. Phelim McDermott's "colorful, inventive" (The New York Times) staging, inspired by Coney Island in the 1950s, sets the uproarious story at a boardwalk amusement park, where the two pairs of lovers at the heart of the tale find themselves on one emotional—and literal—thrill ride after another. Tickets: Adults $18.95, Youth $7.95.

Sun. Nov. 1, 6:30pm Verity (film, 14A) Adapted from Colleen Hoover's best-selling novel, this seductive, psychological thriller follows renowned author Verity Crawford (Anne Hathaway) and Lowen Ashleigh (Dakota Johnson), a struggling writer who relocates to the remote Crawford estate to ghostwrite for Verity. After Lowen uncovers what appears to be Verity's chilling autobiographical notes, she wrestles with the disturbing and twisted confessions about Verity's husband Jeremy (Josh Hartnett), and finds it hard to separate fiction from reality, manipulation from attraction, and opportunity from obsession. Tickets: Adult $11.95, Youth $7.95 (under 18).

Wed. Nov. 4, 7:00pm The Delivery Line: Midwives on the Front Lines (documentary film) At the edge of the earth, on the borders between cultures and countries, on the front lines of war, poverty, isolation and migration...women are still giving birth. And midwives are risking everything to help them. The Delivery Line documents the stories of midwives from around the globe – Afghanistan, Mexico, Colombia, Nigeria and Canada – who are saving mothers and their babies from the perils of their surroundings and creating a safe space to bring new life into the world. Filmmaker Nance Ackerman will be present! Tickets: Adult $11.95, Youth $7.95 (under 18).

Fri. Nov. 6, 7:00pm The Weight (film, 14A) In Oregon in 1933, Samuel Murphy is torn from his daughter and sent to a brutal work camp. Warden Clancy tempts him with early release if he smuggles gold through deadly wilderness, but betrayal festers within the crew, and Murphy questions how far he'll go to see his child again. With Ethan Hawke, Russell Crowe, and Julia Jones. Tickets: Adult $11.95, Youth $7.95 (under 18).

Sun. Nov. 8, 2:00pm Shaun the Sheep: The Beast of Mossy Bottom (film, G) The residents of Mossy Bottom Farm are looking forward to Halloween – until the clumsy Farmer trashes the Flock's beloved pumpkin patch! When Shaun turns MAD SCIENTIST to fix the problem, things rapidly spiral out of control... With The Farmer missing and a wild beast roaming the woods of Mossingham, all the ingredients are in place for a monstrously fun family adventure. Tickets: Adult $11.95, Youth $7.95 (under 18).

Breathe Better Live Better Fundraising Campaign!

Soldiers Memorial Hospital Foundation has launched a Fundraising Campaign for new modern pulmonary function testing equipment. By bringing this advanced diagnostic technology to Soldiers Memorial Hospital local respiratory therapists can perform comprehensive testing for pulmonary conditions, eliminating the need for patients to travel to other hospitals for critical care!

Please join the Foundation in bringing cutting-edge respiratory technology to our community. Your donation helps the Foundation purchase the Vyntus™ BODY - state -of-the-art advanced lung testing equipment for Soldiers Memorial Hospital. Every donation brings us closer to providing world-class respiratory care right here at home.

How to give: Visit middletonsmhf.ca use the Drop Box inside the entrance of Soldiers Memorial Hospital, or by mail to PO Box 730, Middleton, NS B0S1P0.

Remembrance Day Tribute

This November, The Macdonald Museum invites you to pause, reflect, and remember the courage, sacrifice, and service of those who served during times of war, including the animals who stood faithfully alongside them.

Join us for a special Remembrance Day Tribute, featuring two moving artistic displays:

Artists' Circle Poppy Paintings

A beautiful collection of poppy-inspired artwork honouring remembrance, sacrifice, and hope.

Arts Veterans Masks

Powerful and thought-provoking artistic expressions reflecting the experiences and sacrifices of our veterans.

From the soldiers who answered the call to the loyal animals who served beside them, this tribute honours their contributions and reminds us why remembrance matters.

November 3 to 13, Weekdays, 10am to 4pm, 21 School St., Middleton.

Barter Bases Session: Building a Food Forest in your own Backyard

Tues. Nov. 10, 7-9:00pm at 1963 Clarence Road. Come and learn the ins and outs of planting your own food forest. Mandy is the creator of SOULfully SOIL, permaculture practitioner and coordinator of the Scotsburn Community Food Forest. Mandy has been building relationships in the soil and holding space for community thriving for nearly 20 years. Come and join Mandy in exploring with the perennial food system called food forestry has to teach us about building relationships that thrive into the future.

Tickets available here:

<https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/barter-based-session-building-a-food-forest-in-your-yard-tickets-2000214232614>

If this is your first time attending a barter-based class, note that attendees are encouraged to bring an item(s) to offer in exchange for the knowledge shared in addition to any supplies required for the class.

Our facilitator's preferred items are: Home canned items, beeswax, candles, mustard, pickles or maple syrup would be in the realm of what I need.

Also as usual, if you are not feeling well please stay home and keep everyone well.

Barter Based Session: Large Batch Cooking

Fri. Nov. 13, 10am-3:30pm at The Spot, 26 School Street, Middleton. Come learn to make three different meals while filling the pantry! Have you ever wondered how to make large-batch cooking for the freezer simple, efficient, and stress-free? Join us for a hands-on session where we will gather to learn the art of preparing big-batch soups, chilies, and stews.

Together, we'll mix, simmer, and sample our creations over a shared lunch, giving you new skills and fantastic ideas for stocking your own freezer. Afterward, we will package up the remaining meals, with all extra food donated directly to the Annapolis Valley Folk School pantry in Lawrencetown to support our local community.

Come share in the fun, enjoy a delicious meal with friends, and leave with the confidence to master freezer-friendly cooking at home! Get your tickets here: <https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/barter-based-session-large-batch-cooking-tickets-2003857768528>

Our facilitator's preferred items are listed below. Barter items : Pantry items, canned meats, veggies, meals, rice, pasta, crackers, soups, breakfast foods, milk, cheese, yogurts. And dish soap, shampoos, toothpaste, toilet paper....

Also as usual, if you are not feeling well please stay home and keep everyone well. If you have any difficulty registering you can send us an email at avfolkschool@gmail.com or message us on Facebook, Annapolis Valley Folk School.

$100 Reward ? ...yes, $100 reward out for anyone who may have found a lost grey crocheted pouch made for a young Autistic Boy by his sister. Early October they were at Bridgetown Tim Hortons, Kennie's Farm stand and Burger King, New Minus. He was devastated as it contained his prized possession, it contained his tamagotchis. If by any chance anyone found them, we would be extremely grateful. Offering $100 reward. Contact Bonnie Nickerson on FB if you have it. If you're not on FB, contact Weasy's Salon.

All for Eggs? A 35 yr old driver was stopped by Northwest Traffic Services on Hwy 4 in Wentworth Centre after being clocked at 135 km/h in a 70 km/h zone. The reason for the rush? They were going for eggs! What they received instead was consequences of: Stunting charge, $2,422.50 fine, Vehicle impounded, Charge for driving without a valid NS drivers license, charged for an expired MVI, Charge for operating without insurance. That's one seriously expensive dozen eggs. Slow down, Plan ahead. Arrive safely.
