County Funds $60,000 to Annapolis Community Pool Renovations

The Municipality of the County of Annapolis has contributed $60,000 to assist with needed renovations at the Annapolis Community Pool.

In early 2023, it was determined the pool's vinyl liner needed to be replaced, and although the volunteer committee - Friends of the Annapolis Pool Society (FAPS) - managed to execute some facility workarounds to mitigate the leak's impact, the pool was closed early in the season so they could begin to address the issues and assess the project.

In January 2024, with a renovation budget of $320,000, FAPS approached the Municipality of the County of Annapolis for assistance and investment in this project. Municipal Council supported and approved the committee's $60,000 request to assist with the needed renovations.

"There is no greater gift that a community can give to its community members, young and older, than the gift of survival and learning to swim when we are surrounded by so much water throughout Annapolis County," said Warden Alex Morrison. "The Society's (FAPS) ongoing leadership in the administration and operation of this facility, which benefits so many county residents, is commendable. We sincerely applaud their volunteer efforts."

According to Anna Kate, FAPS Treasurer, the County's investment of $60,000 is an anchor investment in the project, and shows Council's commitment to providing aquatic recreation, wellness, and lifesaving skills for their residents.

"We are thrilled the County of Annapolis has made such a significant contribution to our repair project. We are now able to announce that we are 100% sure we will be reopening next Spring. We look forward to welcoming back our community's children in their life-saving swim lessons, seniors and adults working on their fitness goals, and families returning to the pool to beat the heat and have fun. At that time, we will continue our goals of making our pool free-to-use and accessible to everyone."

In 2023, 91% of registered children in swim lessons were from Annapolis County.

FODAR presents two different programs alternating over 3 days. Program Two:

One Step at a Time - A tap dance legend, he has rhythm in his soul, power in his performance and the passion of his ancestors in his heart. Travis is based in Toronto but whether it's Shanghai, Dusseldorf, Paris, or New York, he always leaves audiences spellbound.

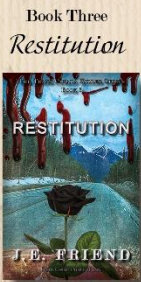

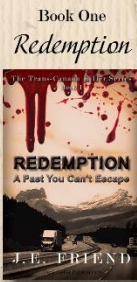

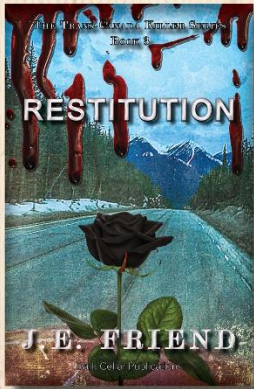

Blur - A duet created and performed by Halifax-based Marrin Jessome and Issac Abriel, this vanguard piece is a sensual challenge of gender roles dissolving stereotypes through virtuosic and highly physical movement.

WHAT WE CARRY - An Eastern Canada premiere created and performed by award-winning Montreal-based Mohawk choreographer Barbara Kaneratonni Diabo (A'nó:wara Dance Theatre). This deeply personal work explores the memories that indigenous women hold in mind, body, and spirit.

The Man in Black - This all-time FODAR audience favourite audience favourite returns! Critically hailed as "The alchemy of dance and song", the production is choreographed by the masterful James Kudelka and performed by the stellar dancers of Citadel + Compagnie (Toronto). It draws from country-western dance styles and celebrates American working-class grit and the man whose voice embodied it - Johnny Cash.

Sat. Aug. 3, 12-3:00pm Opening Reception for Ruptured Landscapes / Eva McCauley
Ruptured Landscapes is a solo exhibition of oil paintings by Eva McCauley, exploring the relationship between people and our fragile environment, a world threatened by systematic disintegration and devastation. These paintings explore and speak to climate change, particularly on oceans and shorelines: the sea level is rising, waters are warming, storms are intensifying, lives and communities are at risk. Conjured partly from memory, partly from photographs, the figures in the paintings uneasily inhabit places that are explored in the past and present, with a focus on their relationship to bodies of water.

This body of work was funded by an Arts Nova Scotia Creation Grant, for which the artist is most grateful. Runs to Aug. 24. ARTSPLACE Gallery, 396 St. George Street, Annapolis Royal.

Wed. Aug. 7, 8:00pm Celeigh Cardinal at Evergreen Theatre. Drawing from rock, blues, soul and folk influences, Celeigh Cardinal's commanding voice and detailed personal lyricism centre her varied – and often arduous – experiences in her music. Cardinal champions Indigenous musical representation by way of her own presence and by uplifting fellow Indigenous artists. The Edmonton-based singer-songwriter has been awarded the 2020 Juno for Indigenous Artist or Group of the Year.

Cardinal has loved to sing for as long as she can remember. Growing up in Grand Prairie, Alberta, she would sing every week at church service, and ended up performing her first solo there at the age of four. And for the past six years, after putting music on hold to focus on working and raising her son, Cardinal has continued to grow as a singer, storyteller and artist.

His show blends jaw-dropping guitar expertise with a commanding voice, powerful songwriting and storytelling to deliver a complete concert experience, launching him onto theatre and festival stages across the globe.

His 8th release, 'Backroads' is a hard edged, personal and brutally honest account of Spiegel's life and follows up from his previous albums, all debuting in the top 10 of the Australian independent music charts and holding the #1 spot on the Australian Blues Chart for several months.

Bridgetown Pickleball

Pickleball is the fastest growing sport in North America. Although it was first played in 1965 in the US, it didn't make its way to Bridgetown until the summer of 2023. This game is played with a paddle similar to that used in table tennis, on a court similar in size to a badminton court, with a plastic ball that is filled with holes! It's not difficult to learn the basic game at any age. It can be played recreationally (like we do) and for those wanting to play more competitively, based on your skill level there are several competitions held throughout the year right here in the Valley and throughout the Province.

In Bridgetown, our group plays (for fun and to stay active) on the tennis/pickleball courts at the Sports Hub. Whether you've never played before or are a seasoned pro, we invite you to join us on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 6:45. You don't have to play every night. Equipment is available to help you get started, and there's no charge to participate. So just come and let us introduce you to the game! Who knows?...you might get addicted! (Questions? ## The Folk Art Society of Nova Scotia is holding an Exhibition of Folk Art

Sunday July 14-Sunday August 11, 2024, 11am -5:00pm
The Silver Building, (next to Jenny Jib), 184 Lincoln
Street, Lunenburg, NS. Admission is free.

The art on display is curated/on loan from private collections. It reflects Traditional Folk Art as found on sailing ships & in lumber camps as well as work done by well known artists such as Collins Eisenhauer, Bubby Moores, Joe Sleep, and others.

Contemporary art is also represented in the art of Bradford Naugler, Gordon Clements, Laura Kenney, Barry Colpitts and others who will be in attendance at the NS Folk Art Festival that will be held on Sunday, Aug. 4, at the Lunenburg War Memorial Arena.

The purpose of the exhibit is to expose the public to a broad range of NS Folk Art that is recognized through out North America as being "of the finest kind".

The long-range goal of the society is to establish a permanent Museum for the Care, Custody & Exhibition of both traditional & contemporary Folk Art in the Lunenburg area. Nova Scotia artists, both past & present, enjoy a unique position in the world of Folk Art. To date they are not given the profile they deserve within the Province. The Folk Art Society of Nova Scotia hopes to remedy this.

For further information on this Exhibition and the long-term goals of the Folk Art Society of Nova Scotia, please contact the FASNS at:

WEASY’S HAIR SALON

4730 HWY # 1 Granville Ferry/ Follow/ like & message us on Facebook
902-532-2273

We are celebrating our 10th year in the Granville location!

We have YOU, THE CLIENTS to thank for that celebration. For supporting us with your continued business and buying your hair products locally!

It hasn’t all been sweet & rosy, some appointments have been booked wrong or ran behind and YOU, the clients, were inconvenienced...to that ...we are sorry.
Sometimes it’s our doings, sometimes it’s out of our control.

In the last 4 yr. timeframe, we’ve had covid affect our business, a tsunami of people wanting in, some clients weren’t called back as soon as they should have...for that we are sorry, we hope you’ll give us another chance. We try to accommodate the best we can.

Helen works Tues - Friday, on vacation Aug 1st - 14th, call soon for an appointment with her.

Friendly reminder she works at the nursing home on Mondays and Wednesday mornings.

Sarah works Thurs, Fri & Saturdays. Friendly reminder, her services are by Cash or E-Transfer. She's away July 29 - Aug 7th TEXT 824-5450 or call the salon for an appointment.

- Sat, July 27th we will be closed, as we both have obligations
- We will be closed on Monday, August 5th for The Natal Day Monday Holiday.

Hair tip: summer swimming hair snarls happen. Try to remember squeezing out that dripping water with a towel, before you put in any conditioner, and cool down the water after rinsing. Friendly reminder, it may help to brush or comb the hair from the bottom of the strand and work your way UP the hair strand, towards the top. Couple drops of conditioner ran through the ends may help with the brushing out. A hairbrush with those nubs on the ends may not be helping you out, consider a natural bristle brush.

- If you’re interested in the Annapolis Natal Day Parade happening next year, please consider stepping up as a parade marshal, hoping a volunteer would step up THIS year in order to shadow Katie and make the transition smoother. Volunteers are needed with the parade and other areas email nataldays.ar@gmail.com.

Are you missing a little teddy bear that you took to Riverfest on Saturday? He has been found with the man doing Fly-tying demonstrations in the skills village, Teddy was hidden beside one of the boxes. Contact is in Bridgetown Community Forum (Chris Fetnig) on FB. We are sending our love & sympathy to the family & friends of Eli, the young boy swept away in rushing water in Wolfville. Two young friends (Riven is one of them) of Eli are making a memorial for their friend. Painted rocks is what they are needing, bring them to #1420 Grand Pre Road and leave in the driveway. It’s not the artistry, it’s for the LOVE. Eli gave the world unconditional love. Quote " You don’t understand how much these boys being supported helps them. No comments, Just paint as many rocks as you can". Source: From all things Annapolis Valley Group.

What does it mean for the forest to be your backyard, your neighbour, your friend?

Moving a Forest explores themes of sustainable balance and ‘resource’ management amid the climate crisis. Spanning conversations from South Korea and Mi’kma’ki (Nova Scotia), this interactive experience asks us to reimagine our relationship with the Wabanaki Forest.

Pay What You Can (PWYC) e-transfer bloomingludas@gmail.com or cash at the door. All proceeds will go to Save Our Old Forest and Blomidon Naturalists Society, in support of their proposed new wilderness areas: Goldsmith Lake (Annapolis County) and Chain Lakes (Kings County). Recommended for Ages 10+. This performance asks audience members to interact and participate in the story, always in a manner within their comfort level.

Applications Open for 2024 Seniors Property Tax Rebate

Applications for the Property Tax Rebate for Seniors program are now open. “We know the cost of everything is rising, and it’s especially hard when you’re on a fixed income. This program helps our seniors with the cost of their property taxes, and it also makes it easier for them to apply for the Heating Assistance Rebate Program,” said Service Nova Scotia Minister Colton LeBlanc.

The program helps seniors on a low income with the cost of municipal property taxes. It provides a rebate of half of the previous year’s property taxes, up to $800. To be eligible for the program this year, people must:

- have paid their 2023 municipal residential property taxes in full
- have their name on the property title
- be eligible to receive the Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS) or Guaranteed Income Supplement – Allowance from Service Canada.

People who received the rebate last year will receive an application by mail this week. The forms are also available online, at Access Nova Scotia centres and in MLA offices.

Applications are open until December 31. Seniors can also use this application for the 2024-25 Heating Assistance Rebate Program.

People should be aware that rebates such as this one are often cited in scam emails or texts that ask for personal information. The Province will never email, text or call citizens asking for personal information, such as banking information or social insurance numbers.

The application form is available at:
<https://beta.novascotia.ca/apply-property-tax-rebate-property-tax-rebate-seniors>
